What we're about

Emergent Village is a vision for the practice of Emergent Dialogue, ultimately within a community of interdependence and daily sangha. Emergent Dialogue is a mutual inquiry into what's arising now, a shift in how we perceive and speak, a shift from Evaluation to Emergence using teachable skills of presence. Operating from Emergence, the felt meaning is kept primary while strategies, theories, and philosophies are allowed but kept secondary. We speak FROM experience, not ABOUT it, and we presence each other to support that which is arising. Because the language and institutions of our...
